

What the program does

Helps you get education or training for a better job

Thinking about changing jobs or starting a new career? The Competitive Skills Scholarship Program (CSSP) can help you get the skills you need to start work in one of Maine's many growing career fields.

The program is open to all qualified Maine residents and pays for education and training for jobs in demand in Maine.

Invests in the Maine economy

Maine businesses need trained workers in order to be competitive in the global economy. The Competitive Skills Scholarship is helping upgrade the skills of the labor force in areas of the Maine economy where workers are most needed in the years ahead.

Training for jobs in demand

The Competitive Skills Scholarship assists with post-secondary education or training for jobs that the Maine Department of Labor has identified as high-wage occupations in demand in Maine.

High-wage occupations in demand...

- Have an average wage at or above the average wage for all occupations in Maine.
- Are projected to have at least 20 job openings annually.
- Include a wide variety of occupations that require credentials ranging from a certificate to a two- or four-year college degree.

What if the occupation I want to prepare for isn't on the list?

If your desired career offers wages above the median for all occupations and you are likely to find a job in that field, you can request to have your training approved even though it is not on the occupations list. Find out more by contacting your local CareerCenter.

Choose the training program that is right for you,

The Competitive Skills Scholarship pays for several different education and training options including:

- Certificate programs.
- Two- and four-year degree programs.
- Credentials recognized by industry, trade or employer.
- Apprenticeship.

Financial Assistance and Support Services

The Competitive Skills Scholarship assists with expenses not covered by financial aid or other scholarships for qualified individuals. CSSP is designed to help you succeed in your education with support for some living expenses. If you are eligible, you can receive financial assistance for tuition, fees and support services described below. Each of the support services has a specified maximum dollar limit. These support services may be available to you if they are necessary for the successful completion of your education and training program. See your local CareerCenter counselor for details.

In addition to paying for participants tuition and fees, the program may also pay for educational supports for income eligible individuals including:

- Childcare.
- Transportation.
- Required books, supplies, tools, equipment, uniforms.
- Computer for two and four year programs only.
- Training stipend.

The CareerCenter will work with you to develop a plan based on your unique circumstances.

You may qualify for the Competitive Skills Scholarship if you:

- Live in Maine.
- Are at least 18 years of age.
- Are legally eligible to work in the U.S.
- Are applying for education or training for a job in a high-wage, in-demand occupation.
- Do not have a marketable post-secondary degree.
- Have the ability to undertake and complete the program, education or training.
- Have an income of less than 200 percent of the federal poverty level for family size.

Annual Income Guidelines are updated each year. To view the most up-to-date chart and for program details visit:
